- Each Member may add one other rally as long as it's a Motorsport UK registered event.
- Each member will be scored on their class position in the event results 20 points first in class descending to 1 point.
- If you get a Dnf you will get 1 point for competing.
- This year if you compete in the up to 1600cc class you will only get points in this class.
- Same with the 1601 and over you will only get points for this class.
- If you compete in both classes will have two slots on the score board one for each class.
- The two classes will not be added together for an overall winner as in perverse years.
- The overall driver/co-driver winner will be the competitor with the highest class points.
- Only the best 6 rounds count from the above
